Sælir félagar, þessi mynd er súlitið sérstök, aðeins í dekkri kantinum, og ferskur húmor sem eldist vel → það er súlitið að vera að lifa í mínum grín og gleði og ekki huga að þú hvert peningarnir eru að fara í. Lýsingin út myndina er alveg hróðileg.
Það er samt alveg bráðskemmtilegur húmor. Allskyns góðis-karakterar eins og þú & Daniel sem lenda í allskyns vandvörðum út myndina. og kynmast fólk sem mislíkar það hvernig þeir hafa séð. Þeir eru meiriháttar húmoristar sem hugsa aðeins um ~~peninga~~ kvennmenn og peninga.
Þessi mynd sýnir súlitið um það hvernig þeir félagarnir reyna að afla sér pening með ýmsum hætti. Þeir reyna að fara út á sjó en fá í stað vinnu í fiskihúsi þar sem þeir glíma við allskyns fiskidóteri. Daniel nær að plata aðalmanninn sem rekur þetta fyrirtæki um það að þeir störfu þjá ríkistjórninni og þeir séu að kanna hegðun forstjóra og hvort hann sé ekki að hugsa um þá vel. Hann kemst síðan að þú að þeir valdu að plata hann. Þeir seigja honum að þeir myndu klaga hann nema ef hann hleypa honum þeim út á sjó. Þar ganga þeim ekki mikil þatur og halda áfram að lenda í vandvörðum.
Þessi mynd er skuggalega gömul og er þú lýsingin er alveg hróðileg, húmorinn endist þó vel... allt í allt er þetta alveg ágætis mynd um súlitið sérstök.

- STILL - 1970..

The Woman ran towards ^{the} phonebooth, which was on the next streetcorner, she opened his door and went in. Then she closed the door safely afterwards. I saw through the glass-window of the booth, that she picked up the headset and dialed a number. I could not hear, what she was saying, but I noticed, that her lips moved, while she held up the ~~phone~~ ^{phone} up to her ear and mouth, so someone must have answered. Soon she hanged up the phone and ~~went~~ came. After we had waited for couple of minutes, came a big black vehicle driving ether the street heading towards us. The driver and another man stepped out and offered us nicely good deal. One of the men turned around at me and ~~was~~ claimed to be from the police. He wanted to know if I was she, the one who had called them not so long ago.

I refused it, but pointed at the other woman, the exact one who I explained in short matter from, what has happened. I told them, that I have been wrongly ~~accused~~ ^{accused} of theft and showed them both my bags to proof my innocence.

The police men checked the bags precisely or understood of course, that this was just a misunderstanding. After a few conversations they managed to convince the woman, and finally she agreed to drop the case.

- Still - 1971

Have you ever been in an aeroplane? I have. Last wends-day I flew to Akureyri. A week ago I went to the reception (the office) in RVK and bought my flight ticket. Early wendsday morning I took a cab and went back to the reception with my luggage. There the men took ^{our} bags and loaded them to the plane and then, after about forty minutes, we proceeded.
I was a little scared at first, because this was the first time, that I ^{flew} flew, but the ^{friendly} woman - she was a flight attendant - brought us candy and talked to me, shortly after I was completely calmed again.
We flew over many clouds. They were very white and pretty. Then we started to lower the flight (come down). Because we were reaching Akureyri. It was fun. When we stepped out of the aeroplane, a bus was waiting for us, and we drove in it to town.

Still.

Tom was supposed to meet his friend 8:30 PM, and now it was 8:40, so he had to hurry. He dressed up quickly and ran out of the house but suddenly remembered, that he had promise not to forget the novel, he had borrowed. He returned and got the book, which was on (lay) the table in the bedroom, and put in his pocket. His friend was waiting for him in front of the guest house < hotel > and from there it was a short way to the station.
Neither one of them knew that the train had left 2 hours ago (earlier). I told him to leave the room but he refused to go.
